

DR. MILBURN PRICE, GUEST CONDUCTOR
BRAHMS' REQUIEM

June 19, 2011

Avery Fisher Hall, Lincoln Center

Sample Schedule (subject to change)

***Final schedules will be shared with confirmed and participating ensembles.***

Day One: Thursday
June 16, 2011

- Chorus to NYC (arrive earlier for additional free time in the city.)
- PM: Check in hotel
- PM: DIRECTOR'S ORIENTATION Mandatory—one representative per group to be present, or by special arrangement.)
- PM: Dinner and evening plans on your own.

Day Two: Friday
June 17, 2011

- AM: Breakfast on your own
- Half Day Rehearsal—Check final schedule for exact time and location (rehearsals will either be in the morning, or in the afternoon).
- Lunch and Dinner Plans on your own.
- Free Time; Visit the Empire State Building, Metropolitan Museum of Art, or dozens of other attractions.

Day Three: Saturday
June 18, 2011

- AM: Breakfast on your own
- Half Day Rehearsal—Check final schedule for exact time and location.
- Lunch and Dinner Plans on your own.
- Free Time; Visit Ground Zero, MOMA, Wall Street, or dozens of other attractions.

Day Four: Sunday
June 19, 2011

CONCERT DAY

- Morning or afternoon GENERAL REHEARSAL: orchestra, chorus, soloists
- PM: Avery Fisher Hall, Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts: Concert conducted by Maestro Milburn Price.
- PM: Post Concert VIP Artist and Patron Celebration, a two hour dinner reception within walking distance of the concert venue.

Day Five: Monday
June 20, 2011

- AM: Free Time — Final Shopping, Times Square, The Garment District, South Street Seaport, etc.
- NYC to home or participants may stay longer for an extended visit.

~Distinguished Concerts International, New York~

*The Art of Performance,
The Power of Education.*

www.DCINY.org